2010-2011 | LEVIN COLLEGE OF LAW ANNUAL REPORT
Gifts received July 1, 2010 through June 30, 2011
As I approach the end of my two-year term as chairman of the Law Center Association Board of Trustees, I spend as much time looking back on our successes and accomplishments as I do looking forward to our enormous potential, exemplified by the human capital of superior faculty and administration, and an abundance of gifted and motivated students. Allow me to share with you just a few of the law school’s achievements, which point toward great future success:

- In the most recent compilation, UF Law was ranked fourth among public law schools, and eighth among all law schools, in the number of degrees granted to sitting federal district court and circuit court of appeals judges;
- UF Law was ranked 47th overall, and tied for 24th among public law schools in the most recent U.S. News & World Report rankings of the nation’s top graduate schools. The UF Law Graduate Tax Program continued to rank first among public law schools, and rose to second overall this year. In all U.S. News & World Report categories, UF Law is ranked as the top law school, public or private, in the State of Florida.
- In its first-ever ranking of the nation’s law schools, Super Lawyers ranked UF Law eighth in the country among all law schools, public and private, and fourth among public law schools.
- Despite a legal and economic environment which has resulted in severe reductions, and in many cases elimination, of the hiring of associates in private law firms, corporate law departments and governmental agencies around the country, our 2010 graduates had a 99 percent “placement success rate” as of Feb. 15, 2011, compared to a 94 percent success rate among comparable graduating classes.
- Our new Planned Giving Task Force of the board has literally “hit the ground” soliciting bequests and other testamentary gifts from alumni who will incorporate our law school into their estate plans. Please contact your estate planning lawyer or financial adviser, or any one of our extremely talented group of estates and trusts lawyers on the Task Force to assist you in incorporating the law school in your estate plan. Especially in a challenging economy, gifts in the form of bequests represent one of the more significant opportunities that we have to develop revenues for the law school in years to come.
- Finally, but by no means least important, 2011 featured the first in memory faculty/administration/trustees Strategic Planning Retreat held on and off campus in Gainesville. The decision to hold this retreat reflected the confidence of the faculty and the administration that the trustees should be involved not only in the very important activity of fundraising, but additionally in helping to shape the direction of the college of law. The quality of the interactions among faculty, administration and trustees, and the depth of the understanding achieved by the trustees of the aspirations of the faculty and the challenges facing the college of law convinced all who attended that this would be the first of many.

A chairman’s message would be incomplete without reference to the UF Law Annual Fund. Our UF Law alumni have, once again, responded in an incredibly positive way in the face of our unpredictable economy. Dean Robert Jerry has communicated with all of us personally, but it bears repetition that the UF Law Annual Fund had its best year ever. A total of $836,460.50 was raised this year for the fund. That represents a 15 percent increase over last year’s figure, from more than 316 additional donors, and is larger than any previously reported annual giving total! I join Dean Jerry, our very talented and hard-working development staff, and our trustees in thanking you for your dedication and commitment to UF Law and its mission to provide the very finest legal education possible.

President Bernie Machen and Dean Jerry continue to be resourceful and creative in allocating limited resources to maintain the quality of UF Law’s faculty, curriculum and facilities in the face of shrinking state funding. These challenges underscore the importance of private giving, not only with current resources, but also through bequests and other estate planning devices. Please incorporate UF Law into your estate plans, because only through such gifts can we hope to achieve our goal to be one of the top five public law schools in the United States. Thank you for continuing to give to our law school generously from your current resources, and, most importantly, to recruit and employ our outstanding graduates as often as your staffing requirements dictate.

I look forward to seeing as many of you as possible at the law school, and on campus in the near future.

Go Gators!

LAW ALUMNI COUNCIL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE 2010-2011

Greg Weiss, President
Matthew Pouey, President Elect
Ian Leavengood, Secretary
Carter Andersen, Immediate Past President

Your leadership enables the University of Florida Levin College of Law to transform from the premiere law school in Florida and the Southeastern United States, to one of the premiere public law schools in the nation. The transformation is ambitious and challenging, and the fuel that drives the transformation is your financial support for the college of law. The primary mission of the Law Alumni Council is to assist in generating resources for the law school’s Annual Fund, through not only individually demonstrating commitment to our culture of giving, but also reaching out to our fellow Gators to encourage them to commit to leading our law school into the future.

Please accept my heartfelt appreciation to each of you who showed your commitment to the culture of giving and made a contribution to the Levin College of Law Annual Fund this year. Dedicated alumni and friends of the college of law, like you, generously gave a total of $836,460.50 to our Annual Fund, the highest annual cumulative total ever reported in our college’s history.

Your generosity has directly enhanced our college, resulting in current students enjoying the most distinguished faculty, greatest facilities and the strongest learning environment UF Law has ever provided. The college attracts the best and brightest students from every state in the country and keeps home the best and brightest Florida residents. Further, we are recognized nationally for our high quality alumni who practice throughout the U.S. by Super Lawyers magazine (ranking UF Law first in Florida, eighth overall nationally, and fourth among public schools nationally).

Our newly graduating classes continue to commit to the culture of giving you demonstrate to them as an alumnus. Over the past five years, the graduating class gift has demonstrated a remarkable level of commitment by the current students, with the Spring 2011 Class Gift totaling $48,650. A typical pledge from these recent graduates was $200 per year for five years.

The current state of public funding has made our college of law even more reliant upon the financial support of our fellow alumni, and we have answered the call. Your contributions to the Annual Fund provide Dean Robert Jerry the ability to improve resources for students, attract and keep top notch professors, and fund important enriching and academic programs. Gifts to the Annual Fund influence national rankings, recruitment of students and faculty, support co-curricular student organizations, and services and programs for students and alumni.

Finally, I offer my gratitude for the personal and professional dedication, effort and commitment of Bob and Lisa Jerry, and our wonderful Development & Alumni Affairs Office, to our college of law. Thank you again for your support, and Go Gators!

Greg Weiss (JD 98), President,
University of Florida Law Alumni Council
Financial Summary
Gifts received July 1, 2010 through June 30, 2011

Total Cash Received
2007-2011: Represents all gifts from all sources (including bequests) to the Levin College of Law. State matching money has been excluded.

New Pledges
Includes new documented expectancies and new gifts for each fiscal year
Thank you to the many UF Law alumni and friends who, from the beginning, have made contributions of time, treasure and talent to bring us here — full circle.

UF Law Annual Fund Contributions

Contributions received to non-endowed, non-building funds

Record for annual fund

The UF Law Annual Fund had its best year ever. A total of $836,460.50 was raised. That represents a 15 percent increase over last year from more than 316 additional donors.

Endowment Income

Gifts to the law school’s endowment are not spent, but instead are carefully invested to yield a dependable, stable source of income in perpetuity. Approximately 4 percent of earned interest from the market value of the endowment fund balance was transferred and spent for specific uses designated by donors and by college administrators for annual operating and administrative costs. (The additional earned interest above the 4 percent is returned to the fund balance.) The fund is managed by the University of Florida Foundation Investment Company (UFICO), which oversees investments and law school endowment income.

The Endowed Fund

“From the time I was recruited 30 years ago for my summer clerking position with my first law firm employer, through the current day handling legal matters in state circuit and appellate courts, and federal district and appellate courts, the Gator connections are pervasive. The badge of a Gator law school alumnus engenders camaraderie, respect, professionalism and courtesy.”

“A solid and rewarding legal career begins with knowledge. Academic knowledge is essential, but so too is the knowledge that we are counselors, that we are advocates, and that above all, the future of our profession is dependent upon each of us remaining steadfast to the ethical practice of law. I credit and thank the college of law for providing me with an education that was second to none, both inside and outside of the classroom.”

Distinguished donors are individuals, businesses and organizations contributing at the following levels: Founders Society, Dean’s Council, 1909 Society, Trusler Society, Enrichment Society and Loyalty Society. (Due to space limitations and printing costs, Loyalty Society members are recognized in the online version of the Annual Report.)
Giving Levels

We will soon be introducing new donor recognition societies and giving levels. Names and definitions might change, but we want you to know we continue to be committed to recognizing our donors in meaningful ways. We are interested in your input as to what would be meaningful to you as we reshape our donor recognition benefits. If you have ideas or questions, please email khendrixson@law.ufl.edu.

"Being a Florida Law alumnus and a member of the Gator Nation has been invaluable to my career as a business litigator practicing in Orlando. That’s why I know how important it is now more than ever that we continue to support the college of law to ensure that future students receive a first-rate legal education and have the same opportunities as those who came before them did. Go Gators!"

Tax Alumni By Class

“My experience at UF Law school and in the Tax LL.M. program provided an incredible education, which has formed the basis of my successful legal career. In addition, the relationships I developed while there have proved to be lifelong and enriching! It is a privilege to be a part of the Gator Nation!”

William A. Boyles (JD 76, LLM 78)
Shareholder, GrayRobinson, PA, Orlando
Graduates of the Graduate Tax Program, ranked No. 1 among public universities, provided significant financial support so the college could continue to meet the challenge of achieving top-tier excellence in legal education. (Loyalty Society members are recognized in the online version of the Annual Report.)
The Office of Development and Alumni Affairs coordinates alumni activities and fundraising for Levin College of Law, including activities of the Law Center Association, Inc.
