student recruitment team

Student Recruitment Team, or SRT, are a select group of University of Florida, Levin College of Law Students who volunteer to serve as hosts to our many campus visitors.

The SRT assists the Office of Admissions with its recruitment efforts by providing campus tours during daily visits as well as to help with other recruitment efforts. This dynamic group of students is representative of our student body. They come from across the nation and are graduates of a wide variety of undergraduate majors as well as institutions with diverse interests in law.

Be sure to ask them about their experience as a University of Florida, Levin College of Law student!

Want to be a SRT?

UF Law students interested in applying to be a SRT should contact N. Castro, castro@law.ufl.edu. Applications are generally due every January and September.
