

CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF RACE AND RACE RELATIONS

Summer 2010 Yegelwel Fellowship

The University of Florida's Center for the Study of Race and Race Relations (CSRRR) is pleased to announce the 2010 Evan Yegelwel Summer Fellowship. The Fellowship provides an award to a UF Law student to participate in a Summer Fellowship Program at the Anti-Defamation League, Florida Regional Office in Boca Raton.

A generous gift from UF Law alumnus Evan Yegelwel, who graduated in 1980, has made this Fellowship possible. Mr. Yegelwel is a partner in the Jacksonville, Florida law firm of Terrell Hogan Ellis Yegelwel, P.A..

About the Anti-Defamation League (ADL)

Headquartered in New York, the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) is the premier national civil rights organization that fights anti-Semitism and all forms of bigotry in the U.S. and abroad, combats international terrorism, probes the roots of hatred, comes to the aid of victims of bigotry, develops educational programs, and serves as a public resource for government, media, law enforcement, all towards the goal of countering and reducing hatred. Defending constitutional freedoms, especially First Amendment freedoms, is a key component of the ADL agenda through both direct complaint resolution and through court briefs.

Fellowship Duties

The Fellowship will last 8-10 weeks, with the student committing to a minimum of 35 hours per week. The Fellow will be supervised by the ADL Southern Area Counsel.

Last summer's fellow conducted legal and legislative research on a broad variety of subjects including amending Florida's hate crime law to include homelessness, the teaching of intelligent design in the public school science classroom, and the scope of separation of church and state under the Florida constitution. The fellow also handled constituent discrimination complaints and participated in ADL meetings, functions and events.

After completing the Fellowship, the recipient will submit a written summary of the Fellowship experience. The student will also give an oral presentation at the law school about the work completed for the Fellowship.

Fellowship Award

$4,000 stipend

Eligibility

The Yegelwel Fellowship is limited to UF Law students who have completed the first-year required curriculum and Constitutional Law (prior to beginning the Fellowship), and who at the time of application are in good academic standing. The student must also pass a background check.

To apply, please submit the following: (1) a personal statement of 500 words or less outlining any past experiences or qualifications that indicate your interest in and commitment to public service; (2) a resume; (3) two references (including names, addresses and phone numbers); (4) an official transcript and (5) a letter verifying good academic standing. Please submit a hard copy of these items to Patricia Hancock in 340 Holland Hall.
