

Legal Institutions of the Americas Study Tour: Chile

March 9-17, 2007

LAW 6930, Section 8460

1 credit

Instructors: Meredith Fensom & Pedro Malavet

The Legal Institutions of the Americas Study Tour will provide practical exposure to Latin American legal systems, using Chile as a case study. The course consists of pre-trip course meetings and the study tour component. The study tour component will take place during Spring Break, departing for Chile on Friday, March 9th in the evening and arriving back to Florida on Saturday, March 17th in the morning. In-country visits will consist of site tours and presentations covering human rights, judicial reform and trade. All course instruction and readings will be given in English. The Program fee of $775 includes tuition for one credit, lodging with breakfast, eight meals, excursions, local transportation, and the MEDEX emergency assistance program. Airfare, airport transfers, some meals, personal travel, and health insurance are not included in the fee. Please visit www.abroad.ufic.ufl.edu for application, instructions and additional study tour details.
