

Location: UF Levin College of Law, Room 345

Agenda:

DYNAMIC HABITAT ACCOMMODATION: THE POLICY FRAMEWORK FOR MIGRATING SHORELINES

Thursday, May 8, 2008

- | | |
|------------------|--|
| 10:30 – 10:35 AM | Welcome, introduction to the project funded by the STGP, and structure of the day's program (Thomas Ankersen) |
| 10:35 – 10:55 AM | Setting the context: Beaches, growth, turtles, erosion, and sea-level rise; Nourishment as Coastal Policy (Thomas Ruppert) |
| 10:55 – 11:05 AM | CCCL Program Overview; Research, and Permitting Trends (Ryan Feinberg) |
| 11:05 – 11:20 AM | Marking a Line in the Sand: the Coastal Construction Control Line (Christine Covington) |
| 11:20 – 12:00 PM | Problems in the CCCL Program and Potential Policy Responses (Thomas Ruppert) |
| 12:00 – 1:00 PM | Working Lunch Discussion (lunch provided) |
| 1:00 – 1:05 PM | Introduction to second portion of project: Policies other than the CCCL (Thomas Ruppert) |
| 1:05 – 1:20 PM | Perverse Incentives: FEMA, the NFIP, and Citizens Property Insurance (Yee Huang) |
| 1:20 – 1:35 PM | The Endangered Species Act and Habitat Conservation Plans—Can We Go Statewide? (Michael McDonnell) |
| 1:35 – 1:55 PM | Property and Planning for the Future—Can We Get Comprehensive in our Approach? (Yee Huang) |
| 1:55 — 3:00 | Open discussion / comments / suggestions |
| 3:00 PM | Adjourn |