

Syllabus

Comparative Environmental Law in the Americas:
Costa Rica, the United States and Florida
LAW 6930, §9018
June 21-August 2 2004

Attendance. You are expected to attend every class and arrive on time, but will be allowed to miss one class during the course. A greater number of absences or habitual tardiness will adversely affect the final grade and may result in no credit being given. Attendance will be determined by a signature sheet.

Materials. Course materials are available for purchase at a reasonable price from Copias del Este, the copy shop close to the law school. Each student is expected to have a copy of the course materials and sign a sheet at Copias del Este that you have received the materials.

Grading. Grading will be based on the results of a final exam, class participation and attendance.

Exam. The Final Exam will be administered August 2 or August 3, 8-11 A.M. It will consist of short answer and essay questions. You must attend the exam.
