

BIOGRAPHY

PAMELA A. SCHNEIDER is a partner in the law firm of Wershow, Schneider, Arroyo and Talbert, P. A., practicing primarily family law. She was admitted to The Florida Bar in April, 1980, after receiving her J. D. from the University of Florida College of Law, with honors, in August, 1979.

Ms. Schneider is co-author, with Julian Juergensmeyer, of Landlord and Tenant - Residential Leases -The Law in Florida, published by the Harrison Company in 1981.

She is currently a member of the Florida Collaborative Family Council, the Gainesville Collaborative Divorce Team, the Eighth Judicial Circuit Bar Association, the United States District Court for the Northern District of Florida, the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit, the Florida Association of Women Lawyers, the Family Law Sections of both the American Bar Association and The Florida Bar, the Family Law Committee of the Eighth Judicial Circuit Bar Association and the Florida Academy of Trial Attorneys. Past affiliations include membership in the Florida Child Welfare Training and Standards Council, the James Atkins Inns of Court and the Department of Revenue Child Support Enforcement forms committee.

Ms. Schneider has served in the past as an Adjunct Instructor in Agricultural Law at the University of Florida Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences, a Legal Writing Instructor at the University of Florida Levin College of Law and as a frequent guest lecturer on child support enforcement at the University of Florida Levin College of Law. She has taught Collaborative Law at the University of Florida Levin College of Law as an adjunct professor since the fall semester of 2008.

A Supreme Court Certified Family Mediator since 1996, Ms. Schneider has completed all training necessary to practice collaborative law and to serve as an arbitrator.