EQUAL JUSTICE WORKS

Fellowships: Equal Justice Works Fellowships seek to develop the public interest law leaders of the future, whether they continue to work in the nonprofit arena or become pro bono advocates in the private bar. For information & how to apply Visit: www.equaljusticeworks.org/programs/fellowships/apply

Conference: A national career fair with employers from Alaska to New Hampshire that are interviewing for over 1,500 employment opportunities. Additionally, our national conference will provide a venue where participants can learn and network about current social justice issues and develop skills that will help them in the workplace. Each year, over 1,000 individuals attend these events.

While fellowships and scholarships may state a preference for specified groups, all UF Law students may participate.

FOCUS ON SHIPS

Fellowships • Internships • Clerkships • Scholarships

AARP Foundation Litigation Herbert Semmel Elder Law Fellowship

For rising 2Ls interested in issues affecting older persons, such as health and long term care, housing, consumer protection including predatory mortgage lending, age and disability discrimination in employment, and pensions and other retiree benefits. AARP Foundation Litigation, in Washington DC, protects the rights of older persons by representing them in important court cases and by writing amicus briefs.
