Your weekly guide to what is important to your career and professional development

Week of March 24, 2008

FOCUS ON SHIPS

Fellowships • Internships • Clerkships • Scholarships

Summer 2008 Judicial Internships, Fifteenth Judicial Circuit, Palm Beach County

The Fifteenth Judicial Circuit is now accepting applications from 1L's and 2L's for unpaid summer judicial internships. The internship program will allow the law student to observe firsthand the workings of the judiciary and legal community while reinforcing the legal research and writing skills learned in law school. Interested applicants should submit a cover letter, resume, transcript and 5-7 page writing sample to: Amy Singer Borman, General Counsel, 15th Judicial Circuit, 205 North Dixie Highway, 5th Floor, West Palm Beach, FL 33401. Submissions must be received by 5:00pm on April 1, 2008. www.15thcircuit.com.

North American South Asian Bar Association Foundation – Public Interest Fellowship

The fellowship will select fellows from across the nation and fund their summer legal work for the public interest. Fellows are selected based on how strongly their summer internship work relates to the South Asian American community. Applications available at www.nsalsa.org and are due April 1, 2008.

PROGRAMMING CORNER

Last Chance For Symplicity Training!

There are THREE opportunities for 1L Symplicity training next week. Make sure to mark your calendars to attend one of the sessions. Remember, you MUST complete a Symplicity training to be eligible to participate in on-campus and off-campus recruiting this summer and next fall. DON'T MISS OUT!
