

Showcasing the Possibilities at the Levin College of Law

SEPTEMBER 28, 2007

All events take place at the Levin College of Law

Tours of the College

10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m. leaving on the hour

With Rick Donnelly, Associate Director of the Legal Information Center

Meet at the door of the Office of Student Affairs in the Marcia Whitney Schott Courtyard

Faculty Presentations

11:00 a.m., Room 283

“Fathers and Families”

Nancy Dowd, Chesterfield Smith Professor of Law and Interim Director of the Center for Children and Families

Professor Dowd will discuss implications of our society’s rapidly changing family configurations, including changes in the roles of fathers, and how these developments challenge many family law norms and rules.

1:00 p.m., Room 355D

“The Legal Legacy of Anna Nicole Smith”

Lee-ford Tritt, Assistant Professor and Director of the Camp Center for Estate Planning,

The death of Anna Nicole Smith generated widespread media and public interest; in fact, our speaker on this topic was quoted in, among other venues, the New York Times. Professor Tritt will share his thoughts on the legal issues surrounding Ms. Smith’s death and the legal procedures which ensued.

2:00 p.m., Room 355D

“Rails to Trails Conversions: How Can Something So Simple Be So Complicated?”

Danaya Wright, Professor of Law and University of Florida Research Foundation Professor

Professor Wright, a leading expert on rails-to-trails conversions, will address the legal issues arising when obsolete railroad beds are converted (or sought to be converted) to trails for recreational use (such as biking and hiking).

Open Houses

10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Each of the law schools centers, institutes, and program areas will be open for visitors.

Glasser Bar-B-Q - Complimentary Bar-B-Q Lunch

11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., Marcia Whitney Schott Courtyard

Open to alumni and friends. An opportunity to mingle with students, faculty & staff, provided by alumni Gene & Elaine Glasser

Law Student Art Show

All day, in the Lawton Chiles Legal Information Center

The College has a talented student body, but not just in the study of law. There are musicians, actors, athletes, artists, and more. Law students with particular interest and aptitude in art will display their works in a special show in the Lawton Chiles Legal Information Center.
