

Health Law Student Scholarships (Summer 2012)

Purpose: This award recognizes promising health law students with an aptitude for and commitment to a career in health law with a focus on the legal and compliance issues facing bio/pharmaceutical and/or medical technology industries.

The Healthcare Compliance Certification Program is a multi-day educational program that addresses the myriad of legal and compliance issues faced by the pharmaceutical and medical device industries.

Deadline: February 10, 2012

Eligibility: Each nominee must qualify under the following criteria:

1. The nominee shall be a second or third year law student currently enrolled in an accredited North American law school on a full or part-time basis who through his/her law school academic and clinical work and other related activities demonstrates his/her aptitude for and commitment to a legal career in health care law within the bio/pharmaceutical and/or medical technology industries.
2. The nominee must be available to attend the June 11-14, 2012 Healthcare Compliance Certification Program.
3. Multiple nominations per law school may be made.
4. The following materials must be submitted (the submission of additional material is discouraged):
 - a. A signed letter from the Dean, clinical program director, or law school professor teaching in a related area nominating the candidate and setting forth the basis for the nomination, including a description of the purposes and content of the class or clinical program in which the student is enrolled (electronic copy followed by original mailed copy required).
 - b. The nominee's current resume including most recent GPA (electronic copy required).
 - c. A brief personal statement of no more than two (2) typewritten pages highlighting the nominee's background, experience, and other relevant information that qualifies him/her for the scholarship (electronic copy required).

Judging: All applications will be judged by members of the Seton Hall Law School Faculty. All decisions are final. Applications will be judged on the strength of the eligibility criteria, letter of nomination and personal statement. No scholarship will be awarded if the faculty members determine that no application meets the scholarship standards.

Awards: Two scholarships ($2,400 each) shall be awarded in 2012. Scholarship recipients must attend the June 11-14, 2012 Healthcare Compliance Certification Program. The scholarship covers program tuition, educational materials, breakfast, lunch and parking during the program. Please note that transportation and hotel costs are not included.
