Per the Guide to UF Law Academic Policies:

Under the ABA guidelines, you are allowed to transfer up to 29 hours of classes taken at another ABA accredited institution. The credits you earn will be accepted towards your J.D. degree at the Levin College of Law, provided that you adhere to the following rules:

- *You will not receive credit for any Levin College of Law required course taken at another law school without prior written permission.
- *You will not receive credit if you duplicate a course you took while enrolled at the Levin College of Law.
- *You will receive credit for elective courses if you earn a 2.0, "C," or its equivalent.
- *You will receive credit for fulfilling your Advanced Writing Requirement only if you find a UF law faculty member to certify your final paper as meeting the Levin College of Law writing requirement.

All transient students receiving financial aid are required to meet with the Financial Aid Coordinator.
