CLINICS IN A NUTSHELL

Students enrolled in the Gator TeamChild Juvenile Law Clinic provide free legal service to indigent children. As Certified Legal Interns, students advocate for children in civil, criminal, and administrative proceedings. Gator TeamChild is based on a model of interdisciplinary representation which addresses the child's legal, social and educational needs. In the Fall and Spring semesters, this is a two semester sequence: a 3-credit Preparation class the first semester, followed by the 6-credit Clinic the second. (You must have completed 48 semester hours by the end of the Preparation class.) The Summer semester is a one semester 6-credit course. For more information contact Legal Skills Professor Meshon Rawls at rawls@ufl.edu or 105K in the Clinic Suite.

Students enrolled in the Virgil Hawkins Full Representation Clinic represent clients primarily in family law cases. As Certified Legal Interns, students fully represent clients from the initial interview through non-jury trial. This is a one-semester, 9-credit course in Spring/Fall and 6 credits in Summer. For more information, contact Legal Skills Professor Jeff Grater at grater@law.ufl.edu or 100J in the Clinic Suite. (You must have completed 48 semester hours.)

Students in the Criminal Clinic State's Attorney's Office are under the supervision of an attorney in that office. The students are Certified Legal Interns and appear in court under supervision handling such matters as bond reductions, evidentiary hearings, and even jury trials. This clinic has a mandatory one-day orientation prior to the beginning of classes. This is a one-semester, six-credit course. For more information contact Legal Skills Professor Bob Dekle at dekle@law.ufl.edu (Note: You must have completed 48 semester hours and either Trial Practice or Trial Advocacy, and Police Practices or Adversary System – one of which can be taken concurrently.)
