Children of the Incarcerated: Collateral Victims of Crime

Wednesday, March 25, 2015
Holland 180, Chesterfield Smith Ceremonial Classroom • UF Levin College of Law
11:00AM  Panel Discussion ~ Having a Parent Behind Bars: Personal Accounts
12:00PM  Keynote Address ~ Jeremy Travis: Growing up in the Era of Mass Incarceration: A Focus on Children with Parents in Prison
Reception follows Keynote

• EVENT IS OPEN TO THE PUBLIC •

Jeremy Travis, President of John Jay College of Criminal Justice, is a leading national figure. He has directed the National Institute of Justice, chaired National Research Council’s Committee on Law and Justice, and chaired the Task Force on Transforming Juvenile Justice. As a Senior Fellow affiliated with the Justice Policy Center at the Urban Institute, Travis launched a national research program focused on prisoner reentry into society. He’s the author of several books, including Prisoners Once Removed (2004), and numerous book chapters, articles and monographs on prisoner reentry, constitutional law, criminal law and criminal justice policy.