Investing in the Future

UF Levin College of Law Annual Report 2013-2014

Thank you for your support.

Donations support the law school’s mission to train ethical, practice-ready lawyers.
This past fiscal year (2013-14) at the Law Center Association, we saw the Levin College of Law and its graduate programs achieve new milestones under the leadership of Dean Robert Jerry. We are also beginning the process for a dean search to replace Dean Jerry, who stepped down as dean of the College of Law after 11 years at the helm. We are glad that Dean Jerry will continue as a member of the College of Law faculty.

Our Annual Fund contributions remain at near record levels with more than $825,845 raised this past year. In addition, alumni participation increased to over 7 percent this year, moving us closer to meeting our goal of a $1 million annual fund. It is due to the generosity of dedicated alumni and friends that our law school has continued to thrive despite significant reductions in public funding. On behalf of the College of Law and alumni everywhere, I cannot thank you enough.

With the University of Florida being designated by the Legislature as the Pre-Eminent Institution in the State of Florida, the law school competed for and was awarded funding to attract a new prominent professor. I am pleased to report that Professor Robert Rhee has joined the UF Law faculty in the corporate and business law areas of practice.

The Graduate Tax Program also achieved a new milestone by successfully co-sponsoring the inaugural Florida Tax Institute which was held this past February in Tampa. This program received rave reviews and successfully raised $25,000 for the Graduate Tax Program. Please plan to join us next year for this annual program which will be held in Tampa on April 22-24, 2015.

To prove the Gator Nation knows no boundaries, the law school has also joined the MOOC revolution (Massive Open Online Course) with a program entitled The Global Student’s Introduction to U.S. Law.

On April 5, 2014, the LCA Board of Trustees honored Dean Jerry and his wife, Lisa, by presenting an endowed scholarship in their name for students attending the Levin College of Law. During the quiet phase of this campaign, the board raised almost $230,000. Anyone wishing to contribute to this scholarship in honor of the leadership our law school enjoyed under Bob and Lisa Jerry, please contact Development Coordinator Missy Poole at poole@law.ufl.edu or 352-273-0647.

As we embark on the coming year under Interim Dean George Dawson, our first priority will be the effort to fill the big shoes left by Bob Jerry and select a dean who will inspire and challenge all of us to build upon the foundation and continue to improve the quality of education, reputation and stature of the College of Law. In order to attain these lofty goals, we will be undertaking the challenge set forth by the University of Florida Foundation to raise funds for endowed chairs and to provide supplemental support through the Annual Fund to allow our law school to achieve excellence.

I encourage you to join your fellow alumni of the College of Law and its LLM programs by contributing to the Annual Fund or one of the many other giving opportunities. We have kind, helpful people waiting to hear from you!

I thank you for your continued service to and support of the Levin College of Law.

Michael D. Minton (BS 79, JD 81, LLMT 82)
Chair, Law Center Association

Greetings UF Law Alumni. On behalf of the Levin College of Law and alumni everywhere, I thank you sincerely for your past contributions. Your gifts have enhanced significantly the education of UF Law students and provided critical discretionary resources to send students to conferences and competitions, fund law journals and publications, provide scholarships and financial aid, support student organizations and provide unique enrichment to future UF Law alumni.

This year has seen many changes at the College of Law yet the passion and commitment of our alumni remains strong. Working out of state in Washington, D.C., I am frequently reminded of our national presence and inspired by the enthusiasm and patronage of our alumni across the country. Due to the generosity of dedicated alumni and friends, the College of Law raised more than $825,000 for its Annual Fund during the past fiscal year. Moreover, this year saw record alumni participation rates for both the Annual Fund and overall giving.

Your generosity has directly enhanced our college resulting in current students enjoying the most distinguished faculty, advanced facilities and foremost learning environment ever experienced. To continue UF Law’s rise in national prominence, however, we need your help. We ask that you please consider participating in the Law Firm Giving Program, sponsoring a Book Award, or making a financial contribution. With your continued participation in and support of the Annual Fund you help assure the continued success of UF Law.

Go Gators!

Taylor K. Rose (JD 98)
President, Law Alumni Council
THANK YOU to the many UF Law alumni and friends who have made contributions of time, treasure and talent.

SCHOLARSHIP SUPPORT

THE CENTRAL FLORIDA WOMEN’S LEADERSHIP SCHOLARSHIP was conceived by Marjorie Bekaert Thomas (JD 76) and founded by Thomas, Mayanne Downs (JD 87) and Lauren Detzel (JD 77) in 2011. The $2,000 annual scholarship supports a student with financial need from the Central Florida area (Marion, Sumter, Lake, Seminole, Orange, Osceola, Polk, Hardee, Highlands and Volusia counties) who is a student member of the Florida Association for Women Lawyers or the Law Association for Women and has a mentoring component. Several other regional women’s scholarships to UF Law will follow the same model thanks to the Central Florida Women’s Leadership Scholarship founders and their vision.

Dyer’s firm, Boies, Schiller & Flexner, hosted a reception in New York City for UF Law alumni. It’s something that Dyer and Smith are planning on a regular basis with a group of New York City-based Gator lawyers.

Dyer is the administrative partner for the Orlando office of Boies, Schiller & Flexner, one of the nation’s top law firms. She practices commercial litigation while splitting her time between Orlando and New York City.

As for Smith, he’s chief operating officer for one of the world’s largest insurers, American International Group, Inc., better known as AIG.

So why are key players leading international enterprises joining the UF Law board of trustees?

Dyer said she wants to make sure UF Law gets the credit it deserves: “This school tries to do a very good job of taking care of its alumni and support people coming out and getting jobs. I’m just proud of this school. I just think it needs to be recognized for the national presence it has.”

And Smith said he wants to support those who come next: “We have an opportunity, having some experience after we left UF, to help some people along the way, so that they might have a good career, do some good and benefit the state of Florida as well.”

When David Bilsker (JD 90) set foot on the UF Law campus for the first time in 25 years this fall, he had two reactions: disorientation and nostalgia. Disorientation because the buildings and layout have changed since he was a student. Nostalgia because, well, it's his law school.

“I'm not sure I can actually navigate my way around here by myself, but, yeah, I do feel a little homesick about being here and I think it's kind of cool,” Bilsker said.

Back in his new hometown of San Francisco, Bilsker handles antitrust, intellectual property and life sciences-related cases for Quinn Emanuel. The photo shows Bilsker's return to his alma mater giving a hand to a current law student after teaming up with UF Law's Office of Career Development. He gave advice and talked with students about their job search on an informal basis. It was called “office hours.”

“I try to stay in touch with UF law school alumni in the San Francisco area,” Bilsker said. “And, you know, my heart is still kind of here having grown up here and having gone to the law school here, so I want to help out.”
