

Stephen Joseph Powell

Senior Lecturer in Law
Director, International Trade Law Program

My Personal Web Site

Just Trade: A New Covenant Linking Trade and Human Rights

Powell on Just Trade Blog

My SSRN Author Page

UF Int'l Trade Law Program

Education

J.D., University of Florida (cum laude)

B.A., University of Florida (Honors program)

Teaching and Scholarship

International Trade Law, Dispute Settlement under International Trade and Investment Agreements, International Trade and the Environment, International Trade and Human Rights, Agricultural Law, Regional Trade Agreements in the Americas, U.S. Trade Remedies Law

Career Highlights

- ✚ Promoted to Senior Lecturer (2005)
- ✚ Selected as Panelist in six NAFTA dispute settlement panels, two as Chair (2002-2013)
- ✚ Appointed by U.S. Trade Representative as Member of WTO Dispute Settlement Panel in Argentina—Ceramic Tiles (2001)
- ✚ Joined University of Florida College of Law as Lecturer and International Trade Law Program Director (1999)
- ✚ Appointed Chief Counsel for Import Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, chief federal legal officer on U.S. trade remedy laws (1982-1999)
- ✚ Promoted to Assistant General Counsel for Enforcement and Litigation in NOAA (1976-1982)
- ✚ Joined National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration as Western Regional Counsel (1972-1976)
- ✚ Served as Captain in U.S. Air Force Judge Advocate General's Office, including in the Washington Office of Appellate Defense Counsel (1967-1972)
- ✚ Appointed Instructor in Law and Coordinator of Legal Research and Writing Program, University of Florida College of Law (1967)