Location: UF Levin College of Law, Room 345

Agenda:

DYNAMIC HABITAT ACCOMMODATION: THE POLICY FRAMEWORK FOR MIGRATING SHORELINES

Thursday, May 8, 2008

10:30 – 10:35 AM Welcome, introduction to the project funded by the STGP, and structure of the day’s program (Thomas Ankersen)

10:35 – 10:55 AM Setting the context: Beaches, growth, turtles, erosion, and sea-level rise; Nourishment as Coastal Policy (Thomas Ruppert)

10:55 – 11:05 AM CCCL Program Overview; Research, and Permitting Trends (Ryan Feinberg)

11:05 – 11:20 AM Marking a Line in the Sand: the Coastal Construction Control Line (Christine Covington)

11:20 – 12:00 PM Problems in the CCCL Program and Potential Policy Responses (Thomas Ruppert)

12:00 – 1:00 PM Working Lunch Discussion (lunch provided)

1:00 – 1:05 PM Introduction to second portion of project: Policies other than the CCCL (Thomas Ruppert)

1:05 – 1:20 PM Perverse Incentives: FEMA, the NFIP, and Citizens Property Insurance (Yee Huang)

1:20 – 1:35 PM The Endangered Species Act and Habitat Conservation Plans—Can We Go Statewide? (Michael McDonnell)

1:35 – 1:55 PM Property and Planning for the Future—Can We Get Comprehensive in our Approach? (Yee Huang)

1:55 – 3:00 Open discussion / comments / suggestions

3:00 PM Adjourn