UF Legal Information Center
SSRN Article Submission Assistance

Please complete the following for each paper that you would like to be submitted to SSRN:

UF Law Author: _______________________________________________________

Co-Author(s): _______________________________________________________

Have you received the co-author(s) permission to upload the paper to SSRN? ______________

Paper Title: _______________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________________________

Is this paper a:

_____ Working Paper

_____ Published Paper

_____ Other: _______________________________________________________

Paper citation: _____________________________________________________

Do you have your author agreement for this article? __________ If yes, please attach a copy.

Please note: for articles published with commercial publishers (i.e., not run by law students), if you do not have your author agreement granting you permission to post a copy of your article to services such as SSRN, the LIC will refrain from posting these articles to SSRN until permission can be obtained.

Abstract: _______________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________________________

_____ I wish the LIC to draft an abstract for my article

Keywords that describe your article: __________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________________________