About this Course

Traditionally, the fundamental characteristic of state constitutions is that they are limiting documents as compared with the Federal Constitution, which is a grant of enumerated powers to Congress. The states are the fundamental and original governing units in our federal system, and therefore, are understood to have plenary power, except where this power has been limited by federal law or the state constitution. The Florida Constitution is the basic rule book for the power struggles represented by the cases contained in this book. Florida courts interpret this rule book to delineate power between branches of government, between private parties and government and between levels of government (e.g., state and local).

Generally, state constitutions are more detailed and particular than is the Federal Constitution, and they are easier to amend. This is certainly true of Florida’s Constitution, and recent years have seen a plethora of highly regulatory amendments that do not really fit the traditional constitutional characteristics described above. Many of these have been adopted by popular initiative. As the introductory materials chronicle, the Florida Constitution is the sixth constitution since 1838, and the current constitution has been amended numerous times since its adoption in 1968.

Florida Constitutional Law is a survey course. As such, this course is designed to give students an overview of the various provisions of the state constitution, an understanding of how Florida courts have interpreted and applied the state constitution, and an introduction into the workings of state and local governments. The course will follow the order of the document itself, addressing: 1) the basic rights provided by the Florida Constitution; 2) Separation of Powers, as understood in Florida jurisprudence; 3) the operation of the branches of government (legislative, executive and judicial); 4) taxing and bonding issues; 5) local government; 6) education; 7) miscellaneous issues such as homestead and eminent domain; and 8) the amendment and revision process.

Course Materials

The course materials consist of the “Florida Constitutional Law - Compilation of Cases & Articles,” in two volumes. Volume 2 contains a reproduction of the Florida Constitution, as amended in 2012. The course materials are available online on TWEN course website. The print-out bound course-materials from last year are identical and can be purchased at www.bookit.com.bz under the "Law School" tab or by calling Book iT! at 352-371-9588.

“Florida Constitutional Law - Compilation of Cases & Articles” is divided into chapters corresponding to the articles of the Constitution. Each chapter opens with a short introduction which serves as a road map for that Article. Some of the more complex sections within an Article are preceded by a brief introduction. Most cases are followed by questions to guide students in the analysis of the materials (but students should not discount the importance of cases which are not followed by questions). Each chapter ends with a short list of optional supplemental readings, which may help provide a better understanding of issues raised.

Course Objectives and Student Learning Outcomes

After completing this course, students should be expected to:

1. Understand and apply the role of state constitution in comparison with the United States constitution.
2. Understand and apply the elements of the Bill of Rights in Florida and how they interact with Federal Law.
3. Understand and analyze the relative authority and relationship of the Legislative, Executive, and Judicial branches.
4. Understand and interpret the jurisdiction of Florida laws.
5. Understand and interpret the tax and funding structure in Florida.
6. Understand and analyze the role and authority of local government.

After completing this course, students will have been:

1. Exposed to Florida Supreme Court Justices.
2. Exposed to seeing constitutional issues argued in the Florida Supreme Court.

Expectations:
It is anticipated that you will spend approximately 2 hours out of class reading and/or preparing for in-class assignments. You will be devoting time to your readings for each class; please be prepared for about 80 pages of reading each week.

Attendance and Participation

Attendance will be taken at each class meeting. Students are allowed 6 absences during the course of the semester. Students are responsible for ensuring that they are not recorded as absent if they come in late. A student who fails to meet the attendance requirement will be dropped from the course and will not be allowed to take the final examination.

Student participation in class is encouraged, and will be considered in assigning a final grade. The degree of student participation will doubtless affect the quality and interest of class discussions. Students are expected to be prepared for each class.

Excused absences are consistent with university policies in the undergraduate catalog (https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx) and require appropriate documentation.

Courtesy
Please turn off your cell phone during class. I also request that you notify me if you know you must leave class early. Please do not play computer games or surf the Internet during class.

Final Examination

The final examination will be a 4-hour take home, open book and open notes essay exam and will be distributed online on TWEN on the designated exam schedule. The exam will consist of 5 or 6 hypotheticals with limited space for answers. The instructions of the examination will be announced later in the semester.

Grades

Your grade for this course will depend on how well you perform on your final exam. Examinations will be graded anonymously; however, as mentioned above, participation will be factored into a student’s final grade as well.

Your grade in my class will be based on your performance on an open book final exam. This grade may be adjusted upward based on exceptional classroom performance. My initial grades on the final exam are always done anonymously, and I never lower anyone’s grade after I turn the blind grades in. Quality of participation counts. If I call on you to contribute to classroom discussion, and you decline, I will come back to you the following day and call on you again to participate.

Course Evaluations

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at https://evaluations.ufl.edu. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/.

Requesting Accommodations

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.
