

FAMILY CERTIFICATE REQUIREMENTS - Juvenile Justice Pathway

In addition to the General Certificate Requirements you must complete the following requirements to earn your certificate.

CORE I

Required Fundamental Courses: Students must successfully complete these two:

Perspectives on Family Law (4 credits) Child Parent & State (3 credits) Juvenile Justice (2)

CORE II

Required Advanced Courses: Students must successfully complete at least one of the following:

Criminal Procedure	Law and Social Sciences
Family Policy	Police Practices
International Children's Rights

CORE III

Experiential Learning: Students are encouraged to take both, only one is required:

Clinic - Gator TeamChild
Externships - 8th Circuit Family Court, Child Welfare, Legal Services, Public Defender's office and Prosecutor's office;
Criminal clinics

Plus one of the following:

Cross Cultural Counseling	Pre-Trial Practice
Interviewing, Counseling and Negotiation or ICN3	Trial Practice
Negotiation

Electives

In addition to the courses listed above, the following electives may be used to complete the required 20 credits or, in appropriate cases, substituted for a comparable required course with the Director's approval.

Administrative Law	Education Law	Race and Race Relations Law
Domestic Violence	Immigration Law	Social Justice Lawyering
Disability Law	Poverty Law	Statutory Interpretation

Graduate Courses

Any multidisciplinary course elsewhere in the University deemed by the Director to be appropriate based on the student's overall record and goals may be added to this list. This may include appropriate graduate level courses 5000 and above in other departments or colleges (for example Education, Psychology, Family Youth and Community Sciences).

Seminar and Writing Requirement

Students must successfully complete an advanced writing project or other approved project (such as a family law brief, advocacy family-related public policy et.) seminar, or in another seminar or independent study approved by the Director. Family Policy, Child Support, and Law of Sex and Sexual Orientation Seminar.