UF LEVIN COLLEGE OF LAW ANNUAL REPORT 2014-2015

Thank you for your support.

WELL IT CERTAINLY HAS BEEN A BUSY YEAR at the University of Florida with many “New Beginnings,” including: new president, Dr. W. Kent Fuchs; new head football coach, Coach Jim McElwain; new basketball coach, Coach Mike White; and of most importance to us at the law school, our new dean, Laura A. Rosenbury. There is much excitement across the campus regarding all of these changes.

Here at the law school, we also wish to thank our interim dean, George Dawson, for providing a steady hand at the helm as we navigated uncharted waters for the law school over the last year while the search for Dean Rosenbury unfolded. During that time period I am pleased to report that the Levin College of Law at the University of Florida was once again recognized as the premier law school in the state of Florida per the U.S. News & World Report rankings with nationally ranked LL.M. programs in tax and environmental law. Most recently, UF Law was also ranked the No. 1 school in the nation (ahead of Yale, Stanford, UC Berkeley and Harvard, just to name a few) as the best law school for networking in America by GraduatePrograms.com.

Our Annual Fund contributions remain at record levels with more than $887,225 raised this past year. In addition, alumni participation increased to almost 8 percent (clearly plenty of room for improvement) this year. It is due to the generosity of dedicated alumni and friends that our law school has continued to thrive despite significant reductions in public funding. On behalf of the college of law and alumni everywhere, I cannot thank you enough.

The Graduate Tax Program benefitted from the 2nd Florida Tax Institute, which was held this past April in Tampa. This program received rave reviews and successfully raised $50,000 for the Graduate Tax Program. Please plan to join us next year for this annual program which will be held in Tampa on March 30-April 1, 2016.

As we embark on the coming year under Dean Rosenbury’s leadership, our first priority will be to introduce the dean to the Gator Nation and to build upon the foundation and continue to improve the quality of education, reputation and stature of the college of law. Events will be scheduled around the state, so please plan to join us at one near you.

I encourage you to join your fellow alumni of the College of Law and its LL.M. programs by contributing to the Annual Fund or one of the many other giving opportunities. We have kind, helpful people waiting to hear from you!

In keeping with the theme of New Beginnings, I will step down this fall as chair of the LCA and we will welcome Oscar Sanchez as the new chair. It has been my pleasure and privilege to serve these last two years and I believe the law school and the university are in good hands.

I thank you for your continued service to and support of the Levin College of Law.

MICHAEL D. MINTON (JD 81, LLMT 82)
Chair, Law Center Association

THIS IS AN EXCITING TIME for the University of Florida College of Law as we welcome our new dean, Laura A. Rosenbury, and a new group of bright, talented students, who in several years will join our alumni ranks.

Thank you for your contributions to the UF Levin College of Law – both financially and with your time. Our incredibly strong base of proud and dedicated alumni have helped elevate our college and allow it to continue as one of the top public law schools in the country.

This year, the College of Law raised more than $887,000 for its Annual Fund through contributions from generous alumni and friends, resulting in the highest annual cumulative total in the history of our college. Your generosity has helped provide UF Law students with prominent faculty, modern facilities and the greatest learning environment inside and outside the classroom that our college has ever offered. Your gifts to the Annual Fund impact the college’s rankings, influence faculty and student recruitment and help fund important programs, activities and services for students and alumni.

Your generosity and leadership help the UF College of Law to continue to attract the brightest students from Florida and from across the country. In addition, your support is essential to guaranteeing that UF Law students have the best educational opportunities possible, and, importantly, to ensuring a smooth transition to the legal profession after their graduation.

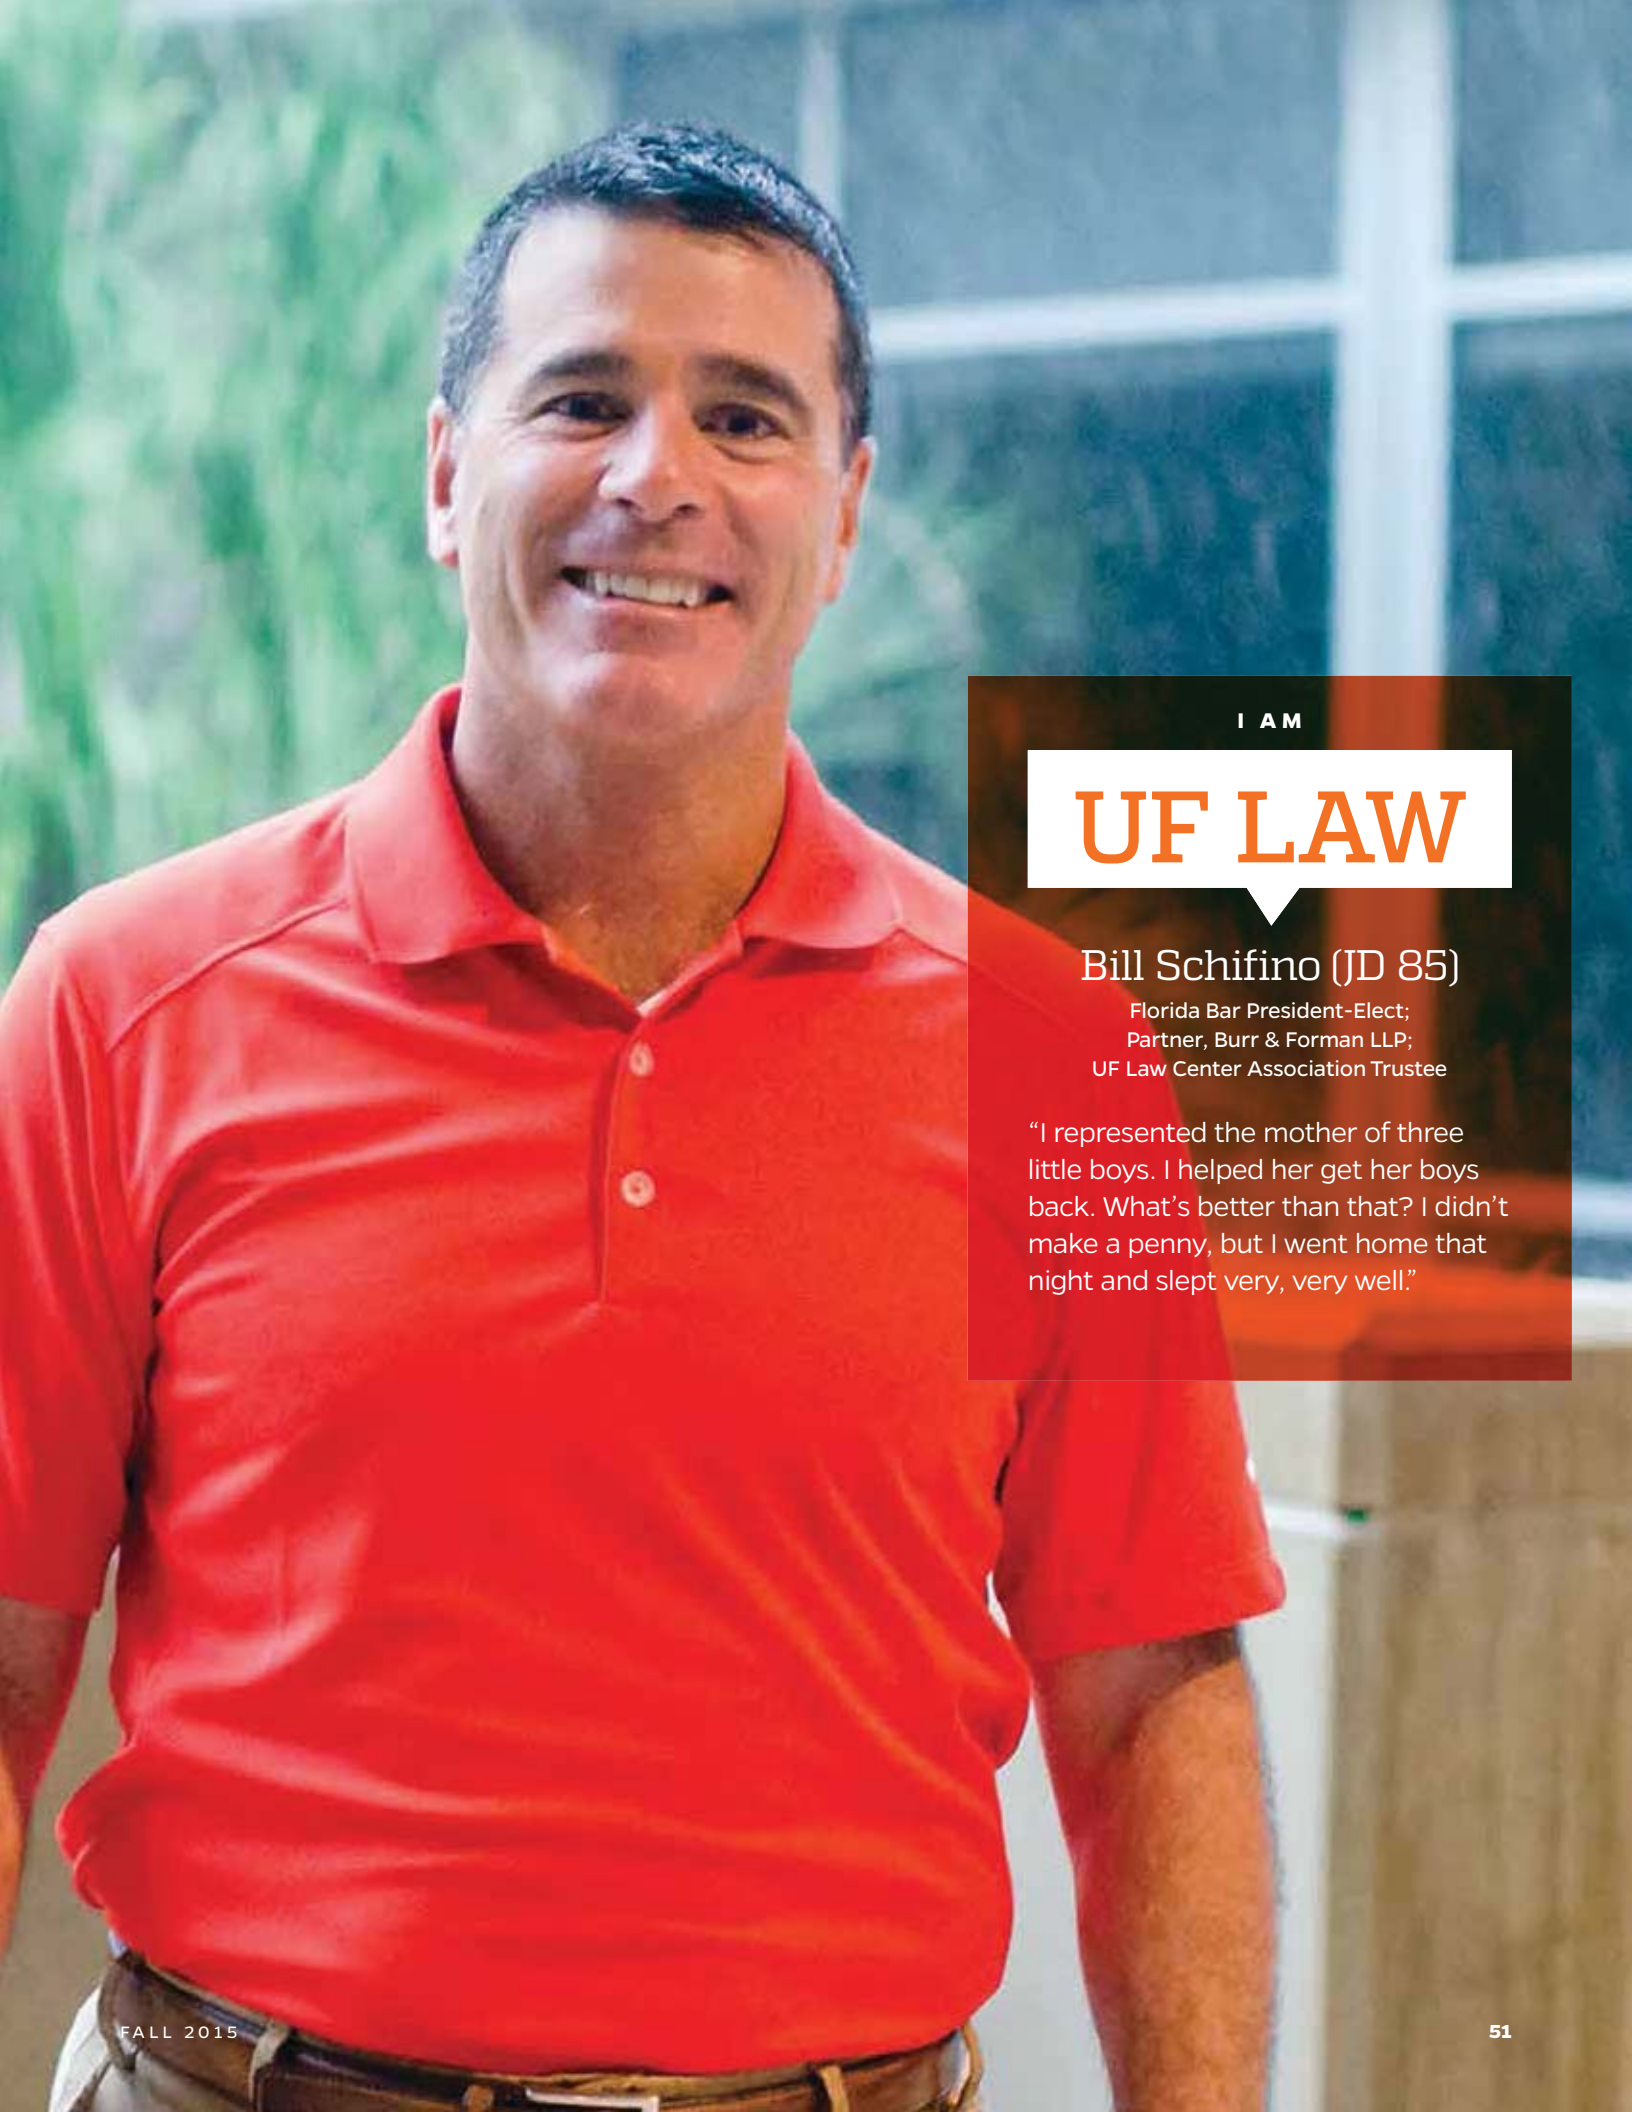

I would like to close by thanking Interim Dean George Dawson, who delayed his retirement for a year in order to lead our college during this transitional period, and the outstanding staff of the Development and Alumni Affairs office for their commitment to the UF College of Law.

Thank you again for your support, and Go Gators!

President, Law Alumni Council

“I’m not really a transaction personality. I don’t want to be in the backroom with the door closed doing contract review. I wanted to be more social and I enjoy interacting with clients and other attorneys. That was a really hard realization for me that I didn’t see in law school. I thought, ‘Oh, everyone is out there, first they go to a big firm and then they go to the courtroom.’”

Honor Roll

The Honor Roll includes the names of all donors to the UF Levin College of Law from July 1, 2014 to June 30, 2015. If your name is not included and you think it should be, one of the following may be the reason it is not:

- The gift was made before July 1, 2014 or after June 30, 2015.
- You made a pledge instead of a gift. Only actual pledge payments made between July 1, 2014 and June 30, 2015 are listed.
- A personal gift was made through your firm or another organization. In this case, look for your firm or the organization's name in the Honor Roll.
- We made a mistake. Despite our best efforts, errors and omissions occur. If so, please accept our apologies and notify the Office of Development & Alumni Affairs at 352-273-0640 or development@law.ufl.edu.

I AM

UF LAW

Richard Smith (JD 87)

Partner, Norton Rose Fulbright;
UF Law Center Association Trustee

“I travel the globe for clients so to relax I run the married couples ministry at my church. When I’m not traveling the globe, I perform weddings for couples after they complete their counseling, which is 14 sessions. I’ve been given a lot –UF gave me a great start and I’ve been able to see the world – so now I counsel and do marriages to have fun that way.”

IN RECOGNITION OF
RICHARD E. NELSON

I AM

UF LAW

Michael Allan Wolf

Professor, Richard E. Nelson
Chair in Local Government Law

“I’m a Stephen King fanatic. I preorder his new books even before they are published, and I devour them when they arrive. Other than reading about sports and rock history, King novels are the only ‘non-serious’ reading that I do. And I’m a big fan of Stephen King, despite the fact that he’s a rabid Boston Red Sox fan.”

Wolf’s eighth book — Land Use Law (6th edition, with Daniel Mandelker) — is published this year, joining his other writings widely cited by professors, judges, and law and planning practitioners. He edits Powell on Real Property, the 17-volume treatise that is the closest Wolf will ever come to Stephen King’s expansive saga, The Dark Tower.

I AM

UF LAW

Amy Stein

Associate Professor of Law

“I love exploring the natural environment and reconnecting with the purpose of the important environmental work we do. I am a certified scuba diver that loves sea turtles but is afraid of sharks – not a good combination since they are often in the same good scuba locations. I once had a close call when a bull shark swam over my head, but I was too busy watching some frolicking lobsters on the bottom to have a heart attack.”

Professor Stein is a leading authority on energy law, recently presented a policy seminar to lawmakers from across the nation.
