Writing Requirement

The student must satisfy a certificate writing requirement. This can be accomplished through enrollment in a seminar from among the Core Curriculum, provided: (1) the student’s seminar paper is on a topic in criminal law, procedure, practice, or ethics; (2) the topic is approved in advance by the Director; and (3) the student earns a B or better in the seminar. A paper that satisfies the J.D. senior writing requirement may also satisfy the certificate requirement if it meets the criteria listed above.

Seminar	Semester Completed	Professor	Grade Earned	Paper Title

OR

The student can satisfy the writing requirement through something other than a seminar, such as a published Law Review article or research paper.

Published Law Review Article / Research Paper	Semester Completed	Professor	Grade Earned	Paper Title (if applicable)
