

Theodore S. (Theo) Kypreos is a shareholder in the West Palm Beach office of Jones, Foster, Johnston and Stubbs, P.A. Mr. Kypreos practices in the areas of probate and trust litigation, trust and estate administration, guardianship law, and fiduciary litigation. He represents and advises clients in a broad range of probate, trust, and guardianship matters including will and trust contests, accounting actions, trust modification proceedings, contested guardianships, elective share proceedings, homestead disputes, exploitation and tortious interference litigation, and matters involving creditor claims. Mr. Kypreos represents both corporate and individual fiduciaries, as well as individual and charitable beneficiaries, and he has experience at both the trial and appellate court levels. Mr. Kypreos has been recognized by The Best Lawyers In America, Florida Super Lawyers, and Florida Trend magazine for his expertise in the area of trusts and estates litigation, and he is a frequent lecturer for The Florida Bar and the Palm Beach County Bar Association on various topics relating to probate, trust and guardianship law. Mr. Kypreos graduated with high honors from the University of Florida College of Law, where he was elected to the Order of the Coif. He earned his undergraduate degree in accounting from the University of Florida.

Within the community, Mr. Kypreos is a past president of the Palm Beach County Bar Association. Mr. Kypreos also serves on the Executive Council for The Florida Bar's Real Property, Probate and Trust Law (RPPTL) section, and has previously served on The Florida Bar's Probate and Guardianship Rules Committee. Mr. Kypreos is a Trustee and former member of the Board of Directors for the Chamber of Commerce of the Palm Beaches, and he currently serves as an officer on the Executive Committee for the University of Florida's Law Alumni Council.