

Cheryl L. Gordon

Cheryl L. Gordon is a partner in the Sarasota office of Shumaker, Loop & Kendrick, LLP, where she serves as co-administrator of the Trusts and Estates practice group. She focuses her practice on business and transactional tax law, and advises a wide variety of corporate and high net worth individuals on tax and legal aspects of their business activities and estate plans. Cheryl, who is also a certified public accountant, represents and advises individuals and companies in the formation, acquisition and/or sale of business ventures, the planning and implementation of qualified plans, and all aspects of the day-to-day operations of their business. Cheryl received her B.S.B.A., J.D. and LL.M., Taxation, from the University of Florida. She has been named to the list of The Best Lawyers in America® every year since 2013.

