My office is Room 307, my email address is wolfm@law.ufl.edu, and my phone number is 352-273-0934. I am typically in my office Monday through Friday. If my door is open, you are welcome, as I do not restrict my contact with students to a few hours per week. If you would like to set up an appointment, please send me an email message.

THERE ARE TWO REQUIRED TEXTS FOR THIS CLASS. BOTH ARE AVAILABLE AS FREE PDFS: (1) Michael Allan Wolf, Property Cases, Questions, and Doctrine (2018); (2) Powell on Real Property Michael Allan Wolf Desk Edition (excerpts).

ADDITIONAL ASSIGNMENTS WILL BE POSTED ON THE LEXIS CLASSROOM FOR THIS COURSE

COURSE DESCRIPTION (FROM WEB PAGE): The acquisition and possession of real and personal property; estates in land; introduction to future interests; landlord and tenant; survey of modern land transactions and methods of title assurance; easements; and licenses, covenants, and rights incident to land ownership.

COURSE GOALS AND/OR OBJECTIVES: By the end of this course, it is my hope that students will:

- be skilled and experienced at reading cases carefully and efficiently,
- get in the habit of looking up definitions of unfamiliar terms and citing good authority for any and all legal propositions,
- be prepared to understand and advocate more than one side of an issue if there is not one definite answer,
- write well-organized answers to essay questions that spot issues, relate the relevant law to the pertinent facts, and resolve those issues,
- appreciate how our legal rules and doctrines are products of societal, economic, political, and historical developments,

- be familiar with Anglo-American property doctrines regarding acquisition of ownership, adverse possession, present estates and future interests, landlord-tenant, concurrent ownership, servitudes, real property transactions, and takings.

COURSE POLICIES:

ATTENDANCE POLICY: Each student is permitted six class absences during the semester. Within one week of missing class, you are responsible for reporting to me via email that you missed class. There is no need to explain your absence, as I do not differentiate between excused and non-excused absences.

INTERNET USE IN THE CLASSROOM: I expect that during each class all students will be prepared to conduct research on the internet (usually Lexis or Westlaw) using a laptop, tablet, or other means. Of course, students are not to use these devices (including smart phones) for any non-pedagogical purposes.

ACADEMIC HONESTY: Academic honesty and integrity are fundamental values of the University community. Students should be sure that they understand the UF Student Honor Code at <http://www.dso.ufl.edu/students.php>.

GRADING POLICIES:

I expect that students will have done the assigned readings for each class. I will rely on student participation to facilitate the learning of challenging concepts. Students who participate at a consistently high level may be rewarded by a one-half grade bump (e.g., from B+ to A-). I reserve the right to lower the grades of students disrupt the learning environment by a one-half grade bump.

THERE WILL BE THREE GRADED TESTS DURING THE SEMESTER: The first test, a closed-book essay test, will be administered after we complete Topic II (on adverse possession). There will be 0-5 points awarded for this test.

The second test will be a closed-book, multiple-choice test that will only cover present estates in land and future interests (Topic III). It will be administered after we complete Topic III, and there will be 0-25 points awarded for this test.

The third test will be an essay test in which students will have access to a clean pdf copy of the casebook only. This 4 1/2-hour test will be administered during the final exam period, and there will be 0-70 points awarded for this test.

GRADING SCALE: The Levin College of Law's mean and mandatory distributions are posted on the College's website and this class adheres to that posted grading policy. The following chart describes the specific letter grade/grade point equivalent in place:

Letter Grade	Point Equivalent
A (Excellent)	4.0
A-	3.67

B	3.0
B-	2.67
C+	2.33

The law school grading policy is available at: <http://www.law.ufl.edu/student-affairs/current-students/academic-policies#9>.

WORKLOAD/CLASS PREPARATION:

It is anticipated that you will spend approximately 2 hours out of class reading and/or preparing for in class assignments for every 1 hour in class.

ACCOMMODATIONS:

Students requesting accommodation for disabilities must first register with the Disability Resource Center (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/>). Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs (Dean Mitchell) when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

CLASS READINGS:

You will find below a list of the topics that I anticipate we will cover during the semester, along with a rough estimate of how many classes per topic. Please note, however, that the pace at which we cover the materials in our reading list will depend on your pace of learning. I will not leave a topic until I believe that the students who are prepared for class have a good understanding of the material. In the event we are moving more slowly than anticipated, I will not speed up to cover all of these readings. Instead, I will make cuts in the assigned readings.
