Memorandum to Faculty and Administrators

From: Laura A. Rosenbury
Re: Committee Charges for 2019-2020

This document sets forth the charges for our standing committees during the 2019-2020 academic year. As determined by the faculty, we have 15 standing committees: Academic Standards; Adjunct Teaching; Admissions; Appointments; Curriculum; Distance Learning; Diversity and Community Relations; Facilities & Sustainability; Faculty Development; Financial Aid; International Programs; Judicial Clerkships; Non-Tenure Track Appointments, Retention, and Promotions; Promotion and Tenure; and Strategic Planning. We will continue to combine the Curriculum and Strategic Planning committees this year. Our Admissions Committee will be divided into two subsets, with one subset focused on JD admissions and the other on LLM and SJD admissions. We will not have any ad hoc committees this year.

The charges for each committee follow. Faculty members with advisory assignments will not have a formal charge but instead will work with the Dean's Office as needed. Please note that we will be adding student members to several committees through the Student Bar Association structure.

In keeping with past norms, committees seeking to put action items on faculty meeting agendas should notify Kay Epstein in the Dean's Office two weeks before the faculty meeting at which the committee would like the faculty to consider the item. Committees also should seek informal faculty input before placing action items on faculty meeting agendas. Committees are welcome to seek informal faculty input through brown bag meetings or by putting information items on faculty meeting agendas (once again, with two-weeks notice). Once a committee item is placed on a faculty meeting agenda, the chair must transmit to Kay Epstein all documentation to be considered at the faculty meeting. The Dean's Office will attach all committee documents to the faculty meeting agenda, which will be distributed at least one week before each faculty meeting. At the end of the year, committee chairs should submit reports to me summarizing each committee's work and setting forth work that remains for the following year's committee.

Please note that these committees will remain constituted until a new slate of committee members is approved by the faculty.

Memorandum to the 2019-2020 Academic Standards Committee

Russell-Brown (chair), Fernandez, Nance ex officio: Inman

From: Laura A. Rosenbury
Re: Charge to the Academic Standards Committee
Date: August 19, 2019

As set forth in the UF Law Faculty Policy Manual, the Academic Standards Committee shall continue to hear all appeals timely filed by students seeking exceptions to academic policies. I also charge the Committee with examining the quality of our academic program and to make recommendations designed to enhance that quality.

Specifically, I ask the Committee to develop a proposal for increasing the threshold for academic probation at the College of Law. Currently, students who have GPAs below 2.0 at the end of a semester are put on academic probation. Our statistical analyses reveal, however, that students are at increased risk of failing the Florida Bar Exam when they have GPAs below 3.0. I ask the Committee to consider this and other data in formulating the proposal for an increased academic probation threshold. I then ask the Committee to submit recommendations to the faculty to be approved through a faculty vote.

I also ask the Committee to consider imposing limits on the number of pass/fail credits students may take after their 1L years. In considering this possibility, I ask the Committee to continue its study of the policies that will best position our students for success on the bar exam and in their searches for employment after graduation. If the Committee believes limits on pass/fail credits should be imposed, I ask the Committee to submit recommendations to the faculty to be approved through a faculty vote.

I thank the Committee in advance for its attention to these matters.

Memorandum to the 2019-2020 Adjunct Teaching Committee

Ruff (chair), Adkins, Burke (spring), Calfee, Grater, Jacobs, Zedalis ex officio:
Morgan

From: Laura A. Rosenbury
Re: Charge to the Adjunct Teaching Committee
Date: August 27, 2019

I charge the Committee with supporting our adjunct teaching program, as specified in the Faculty Policy Manual. The Committee's specified duties include approving initial adjunct appointments, evaluating adjuncts in their first semesters of teaching and at least once every four years thereafter, and soliciting faculty approval of adjuncts teaching more than one semester a year. I ask that the Committee continue to ensure appropriate recordkeeping of such evaluations and approvals.

I also ask that the Committee continue to conduct evaluations of two sets of adjuncts that currently fall outside of the evaluations contemplated by the Faculty Policy Manual: (1) adjuncts teaching sub-parts or sub-sections of courses headed by another instructor, and (2) adjuncts teaching in our Graduate Tax Program. I ask this year's Committee to evaluate any adjuncts falling within those two categories that the Committee did not previously evaluate during the 2018-2019 academic year. I ask that the Committee continue to work with Associate Dean for Experiential Learning Silvia Menendez and Associate Dean for Tax Programs Charlene Luke to coordinate these evaluations.

In addition, the Faculty Policy Manual specifies that the Committee should regularly provide the faculty with a survey of the use of adjuncts generally and, if appropriate, make recommendations to me and the faculty about the role of adjuncts at the College, including the advisability of using them in particular courses. I ask that this year's Committee conduct that survey and make any recommendations that the Committee believes appropriate. I also ask the Committee to make recommendations to the faculty for revising the Faculty Policy Manual so that reviews are limited to adjuncts who are not otherwise employed full-time by the College of Law or the University.

Finally, I ask the Committee to review all of the policies and procedures related to adjuncts in the Faculty Policy Manual and, if warranted, to make recommendations to the faculty for revising the Faculty Policy Manual.

I thank the Committee in advance for its attention to these matters.

Re: Charge to the Admissions Committee

Date: August 21, 2019

The College of Law has consolidated the processing of applications for all of its degree programs. I charge the Committee with supporting the consolidated Admissions Office in its work, with one subset of the Committee focused on JD applications and another subset of the Committee focused on LLM and SJD applications.

In particular, I ask the Committee to provide counsel to the Admissions Office as it continues to implement changes designed to grow our applicant pool, to enhance the diversity of that pool, and to ensure that the most promising applicants ultimately enroll at the College. I also ask the Committee to ensure ongoing faculty involvement in the vital task of student recruitment and to devise methods for successful recruitment of students from diverse backgrounds.

For the subset of the Committee focused on JD admissions, I ask the Committee to continue its practice of reviewing only those applications identified as borderline by the Admissions Office. I also ask the Committee to work with the Admissions Office to monitor the credentials and demographics of students who are admitted throughout the fall and early spring and to provide direction about factors that should guide decisions about subsequent applicants. The Admissions Office has worked well with past committees to ensure our entering class is diverse, including by race and gender, in accordance with the College's mission and admissions policy as well as state law. I encourage the Committee this year to review our progress and challenges in these areas and to make recommendations to the Admissions Office (and, if appropriate, to me and the faculty) about any other initiatives you deem helpful.

For the subset of the Committee focused on LLM and SJD applications, I ask the Committee to review the applications submitted and to admit students likely to succeed in, and enhance the reputation of, our programs. Once these decisions are made, I ask the Committee to work with faculty to recruit admitted students so that at least 110 students enroll in our Tax LLM programs next fall and at least 20 students enroll in our LLM in U.S. Law program.

I thank the Committee in advance for its attention to these matters.

Memorandum to the 2019-2020 Appointments Committee

Sokol (elected co-chair), Wolf (elected co-chair), Angelo, Hasen, King, Stein
From: Laura A. Rosenbury
Re: Charge to the Appointments Committee
Date: August 26, 2019

I charge the Committee with identifying candidates for our faculty. Based on discussions with faculty members and our Provost, I anticipate that we may hire up to two tenure-track faculty members and at least two tenured lateral faculty members this year.

I ask that the Committee's first order of business be the development of a hiring policy. I ask that the Committee present that policy to the faculty for approval at our first faculty meeting of the academic year on September 6, 2019. Based on the recommendation from last year's Committee and reviews of our curricular needs and our scholarly production as compared to peer and aspirational institutions, I ask that the Committee recommend candidates as follows:

I ask the Committee to identify tenure-track candidates in all areas of law to join our faculty. I ask the Committee to focus on candidates with publication records, strong scholarly potential, commitment to excellence in teaching, and enthusiasm for creating an inclusive environment for all students. In reviewing applications, I ask the Committee to consider long-term teaching needs in large enrollment classes, environmental law, health law, tax, and law and technology. I also encourage the Committee to pay particular attention to diversifying our faculty.

I also ask the Committee to oversee searches for two lateral hires who are currently tenured at other schools. The first search will be in partnership with the College of Engineering to recruit a nationally recognized tenured scholar of law and technology, funded through the university preeminence initiative. The other search will be to recruit a nationally recognized tenured scholar in the area of environmental law. In reviewing candidates for these two positions, I ask the Committee to focus on influential and highly-cited scholars who also evidence commitment to excellence in teaching and enthusiasm for creating an inclusive environment for all. In addition, I encourage the Committee to pay particular attention to diversifying our faculty.

Finally, I ask the Committee to prepare a file for the faculty to consider extending a joint appointment to Clay Calvert, the Brechner Eminent Scholar in Mass Communication at the College of Journalism and Communications. I thank the Committee in advance for its attention to these matters.

Memorandum to the 2019-2020 Curriculum & Strategic Planning Committee

Cohen (chair), Cupples, Davis, J., Endo, Mashburn ex officio: Nance

From: Laura A. Rosenbury

Re: Charge to the Curriculum & Strategic Planning Committee

Date: August 21, 2019

I charge this joint Committee with reviewing course proposals as set forth in the Faculty Policy Manual. I also ask the Committee to focus specifically on three other issues:

First, I ask the Committee to evaluate and develop proposals to enhance our required writing curriculum. Professors who teach writing, research, and drafting have proposals based on best practices at our aspirational peers and the advice of consultants. I ask the Committee to review the proposals they submit, to solicit input from the faculty, and to make recommendations to the faculty to be approved through a faculty vote.

Second, I ask the Committee to study the university's new course evaluation system and to develop a proposal for tailoring the new system's questions to law school pedagogy and assessment. In developing that proposal, I ask the Committee to solicit input from faculty members and the university. I also ask the Committee to submit its ultimate recommendation to the faculty for review before submitting it to the university.

Third, I ask the Committee to consider expansions to our Semester in Practice program. Currently, students may spend a Semester in Practice during either semester of their third years, engaging in intensive externships in government or public interest placements or in a general counsel's office. I ask the Committee to consider expanding the program so that students may choose to spend a Semester in Practice at select, pre-screened law firms. I also ask the Committee to consider giving the Associate Dean for Experiential Learning discretion to permit students to be paid while spending a Semester in Practice in a fellowship program that otherwise pays its participants (in particular the Florida Gubernatorial Fellows Program). If the Committee believes the program should be expanded in any way, I ask the Committee to submit a proposal to the faculty to be approved through a faculty vote.

To the extent the Committee has any remaining time, I ask the Committee to consider curricular development so that our students are prepared to meet employer expectations in a range of jobs. If the Committee believes changes to our curriculum are necessary, I ask the Committee to submit recommendations to the faculty for a vote. I thank the Committee in advance for its attention to these matters.

Memorandum to the 2019-2020 Distance Learning Committee

Hamilton (chair), Herzfeld, O'Connell ex officio: Robertson,
Vallandingham, Vaught

From: Laura A. Rosenbury
Re: Charge to the Distance Learning Committee
Date: August 27, 2019

I charge this Committee with continuing its review of the quality of the courses that the College offers in an on-line format. I also ask the Committee to provide guidance to faculty about incorporating appropriate technology into all of their courses, whether taught on-line or in-person.

First, I ask the Committee to ensure that students are effectively engaged when on-line courses are taught asynchronously. According to ABA Standard 306, we may award credit for such on-line courses only if: “there is opportunity for regular and substantive interaction between faculty member and student and among students,” and “there is regular monitoring of student effort by the faculty member and opportunity for communication about that effort.” I ask the Committee to advise faculty teaching such courses and to work with Associate Dean for Academic Affairs Jason Nance to provide guidance about how to meet Standard 306. If the Committee believes that any new policies are needed to ensure compliance with Standard 306, I ask the Committee to work with the Academic Standards Committee and Curriculum & Strategic Planning Committee to submit recommendations to the faculty to be approved through a faculty vote.

Second, I ask the Committee to assist the faculty in completing the College of Law’s migration to Canvas, the learning platform supported by the university. This learning platform provides tools for ensuring student engagement and assessment in all courses, whether taught on-line or in-person. Canvas also safeguards student privacy in accordance with state and federal law.

Finally, I ask the Committee to work with the Curriculum & Strategic Planning Committee to ensure that we are offering sufficient on-line courses to meet the needs of our students participating in our Semester in Practice program. If more courses are needed, I ask the Committee to host brown bag discussions exploring how existing in-person courses may be taught in an on-line format.

I thank the Committee in advance for its attention to these matters.

Memorandum to the 2019-2020 Diversity and Community Relations Committee

Wright (chair), Bornstein, Drake, Fernandez, Tritt (fall), Willis (spring) ex officio: Farley, Greene, Smith, M.

From: Laura A. Rosenbury
Re: Charge to the Diversity and Community Relations Committee
Date: August 27, 2019

I charge the Committee with spearheading discussions and initiatives designed to promote a diverse and inclusive atmosphere at the College of Law, including with respect to race, ethnicity, national origin, sex, gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, age, marital and other family status, socio-economic status, disability, religion, political opinions or affiliations, genetic information, and veteran status. I also charge the Committee with strengthening the College's ties with diverse communities beyond the UF campus.

As part of meeting these goals, I ask the Committee to collaborate with Assistant Dean for Inclusion Michelle Smith, the Faculty Development Committee, and student groups to ensure that the College hosts robust programming related to diversity and inclusion and welcoming forums for the discussion of these issues among students, faculty, and staff. I also ask the Committee to develop best practices for responding to events at the law school and in broader local and national communities that implicate issues related to diversity and inclusion.

I also ask the Committee to work with our Office of Admissions to ensure that we develop multiple pipelines of applicants interested in applying to our JD and LLM programs. Relatedly, I ask the Committee to assist the Office of Admissions in recruiting admitted students who add to the diversity of our community.

Finally, I ask the Committee to conduct an inventory of all of our mentorship programs connecting students with lawyers in the local community. Once the inventory is complete, I ask the Committee to work with Senior Director of Development and Alumni Affairs Mike Farley to develop proposals for coordinating these mentorship programs and for ensuring that all interested alumni are invited to participate.

I thank the Committee in advance for its attention to these matters.

I also ask the Committee to make recommendations for maximizing the use of our renovated space.

In addition, I ask the Committee to work with students interested in sustainability to propose ways that the College might become more environmentally sustainable.

In doing so, I ask the Committee to ensure that the series includes scholars from a wide range of fields with diverse viewpoints and perspectives. I also ask the Committee to attend all such workshops, to encourage students and other faculty members to attend the workshops, and to host the workshop's guests at dinners and other events.

In addition, I ask the Committee to work with the College of Law's centers, programs, student organizations, and student-edited publications in order to develop events and publications that will enhance our scholarly profile and national and international influence. Memorandum to the 2019-2020 International Programs Committee

Zheng (chair), Dowd (spring), Herzfeld, Malavet, Winden ex officio: Alter, Farley, McLendon

From: Laura A. Rosenbury

Re: Charge to the International Programs Committee

I charge the Committee with ensuring that the College is preparing students for legal work that is increasingly global. This includes working with faculty members who wish to enhance the international aspects of their existing courses and working with an alumni advisory group interested in helping the College attract prominent international speakers and visitors to our campus.

I also ask the Committee to continue to develop joint recruitment strategies for the LLM in International Tax and the LLM in U.S. Law, in consultation with the Admissions Committee. As part of these efforts, I ask the Committee to consider whether international students who take courses at the College outside of those degree programs may later count the credits of those courses toward the credits required for one or both LLM degree programs. If the Committee believes such courses should be counted in at least some circumstances, I ask the Committee to work with the Curriculum Committee to develop a proposal to be submitted to the faculty for approval through a faculty vote.

I thank the Committee in advance for its attention to these matters.

Subject: Call for Nominations for College of Law Representative to the University Faculty Senate

From: Rosenbury, Laura Ann
To: . LAW-Campus Faculty
BCC: . LAW-Dean's Cabinet
Attachments: LAW.faculty.senate.revised.08.27.2019.xlsx

Dear Colleagues,

I hope your new classes are all off to a great start.

We will have our first faculty meeting on Friday, September 6, 2019 at noon in the faculty lounge. The agenda will be circulated later this week.

Before then, I write to alert you to a problem with our April 5, 2019 election of Faculty Senate representatives. As most of you may remember, Sarah Wolking and Maggie Temple-Smith both graciously agreed to serve as our new representatives (along with Ben Fernandez, who will continue to serve as a representative until May, 2020). Unfortunately, Maggie is not eligible to serve on the Faculty Senate because she had previously served two consecutive terms (from 2011 to 2017), and she must wait a total of three years before serving again.

By this email, I hereby solicit nominees to be our third Faculty Senate representative. A list of eligible nominees is attached. You may nominate yourself or someone else. Please send nominations to Tracy Reid, reid@law.ufl.edu, who continues to serve on our Senate Nominating Committee.

We will also take nominations from the floor at the September 6, 2019 faculty meeting. Please let Tracy or me know if you have any questions.

Thank you so much,

Laura
