

GATOR Scholars

Students currently enrolled as undergraduates at the University of Florida may be eligible for admission to the Levin College of Law via the Gator Scholars program. Applicants admitted under the Gator Scholars option will be awarded a Gator Scholars scholarship in the amount of $5,000 (Florida residents) or $8,750 (non-Florida residents) per year. The ABA limits the number of students enrolling via Gator Scholars to 10% of the previous year's entering class.

Application opens: AUGUST 15
Completion deadline: SEPTEMBER 1
Decision notification: SEPTEMBER 15
Accept or decline offer: OCTOBER 15

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- Current enrollment as an undergraduate at UF who will receive their bachelor's degree from UF between September 2025 and May 2026
- No LSAT score, including no cancellations, and no GRE score assigned to UF Law
- ACT national composite score or SAT mathematics and critical reading total score at or above the 85th percentile for the administration of the exam that you took
- LSAC GPA at or above 3.9 when you apply.
 - Contact Admissions before applying if your LSAC GPA is 3.8 to 3.89. If your LSAC GPA is below 3.8, please apply via the Regular Decision admissions process.
- Additional factors considered: work/internship history, leadership on campus or in community, rigor of your major(s), and academic honors

HOW TO APPLY

- Register with LSAC and submit transcripts to LSAC's Credential Assembly Service (CAS) for all college-level courses taken at any university
- Submit your application via the LSAC website by selecting the Gator Scholars option. Complete applications will include all required parts as set forth in the application instructions and a copy of your official ACT or SAT results attached as an application addendum.

IF OFFERED ADMISSION VIA GATOR SCHOLARS

- Accept or decline your offer of admission by October 15, 2025. To accept the offer, you must submit an Enrollment Form and $200 seat deposit.
- Withdraw applications to all other law schools to which you have applied, and do not apply to any additional law schools.
- Your LSAC GPA must not significantly decrease from the LSAC GPA with which you were admitted. If your LSAC GPA significantly drops, your admission may be rescinded, and you may not be allowed to enroll.
