Professor McCouch

Spring 2020

Office Hours, Telephone and E-mail

My office is located in Holland Hall 312B. Regular office hours are on Tuesday and Thursday from 3:00–4:00 p.m., or by appointment. If I am in my office and the door is open, you are welcome to drop by. You can also reach me by telephone at 352.273.0991 or by e-mail at gmccouch@law.ufl.edu.

Course Materials

The assigned casebook for the course is Ascher & McCouch, Gratuitous Transfers (7th ed.) (West 2019). Students should also have a copy of the Florida Statutory Supplement and handout problems, which will be posted on the course website (TWEN). Supplementary background readings (optional, not required) are McGovern, Kurtz & English, Principles of Wills, Trusts and Estates (concise hornbook) (2d ed.) (West 2011), and Haskell, Preface to Wills, Trusts and Administration (2d ed.) (Foundation 1994).

Course Objectives

The primary objective of the course is to introduce students to fundamental concepts and doctrines of inheritance law, including intestate succession, wills, and trusts. The course provides an essential grounding for students who wish to pursue advanced courses in fiduciary administration, future interests, and estate planning, as well as a general survey for students who intend to practice in other areas.

Class Meetings and Attendance

Class will meet in Room 355C at 1:30–2:45 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday, beginning Monday, January 13. Regular and punctual class attendance is required. A student with more than four unexcused class absences may be penalized in the final grade or excluded from the course. Students should be prepared to discuss the assigned readings in class, and may expect to spend up to two hours of preparation for every class hour.

Evaluation

Students will be evaluated primarily based on the final examination, which will be graded anonymously. Grades will follow the law school grading policy, which is available at <http://www.law.ufl.edu/students/policies.shtml#9>. In calculating the final grade for the course, the grade awarded on the final examination may be raised by one grade level to reflect active, voluntary participation of consistently high quality in class discussion.

Students are encouraged to provide feedback on this course by completing an online evaluation shortly before the end of the semester. Students will be notified in advance of the online evaluation period. Summary results of the evaluation are available at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/>.

Makeup Exams

The law school policy on delay in taking exams can be found at: <http://www.law.ufl.edu/students/policies.shtml#12>.

Disability Accommodation

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352.392.8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the Law School Office of Student Affairs when requesting accommodations. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

Honor Code

Students are subject to the UF Student Honor Code, which can be found at <http://www.dso.ufl.edu/students.php>.

Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the course, students should have a basic understanding of the laws of intestacy, wills, and trusts, enabling them to analyze practical applications and planning alternatives and preparing them to pursue advanced courses in personal and estate planning.
