

- Course materials will be available for purchase at BookiT, 1250 W. University Ave. (N.W. 13th St. & University Ave.-in the Holiday Inn Building, right next to the Piesano's), ph# 352-371-9588. Students are also free to download the materials themselves. Additional materials are available on TWEN and a few items may be placed on reserve in the Law Library.
- Students should sign up on TWEN for the course website.
- Read the following from the course materials:
  1. Lars Schoultz, Beneath the United States: A History of U.S. Policy Toward Latin America xi-xvii (1998). (Coursepack)
  2. Eduardo Silva, 'Authoritarianism, Democracy and Development', in Latin America Transformed (Robert N. Gwynne & Cristóbal Kay, eds., 2004). (Coursepack)
  3. M.C. Mirow, The Code Napoleon: Buried but Ruling in Latin America, 33 Denv. J. Int'l L. & Pol'y 179 (2005) (TWEN)
  4. Christopher Sabatini, Rethinking Latin America: Foreign Policy is more than Development, FOREIGN AFFAIRS, March/April 2012, at 8. (TWEN)
  5. John Rapley, The New Middle Ages, FOREIGN AFFAIRS, May/June 2006, at 95. (Coursepack)
- Suggested additional readings:
  1. Moisés Naím & Francisco Toro, Venezuela's Suicide: Lessons From a Failed State, FOREIGN AFFAIRS (Nov./Dec. 2018). (TWEN)
  2. The Latinobarómetro survey: Latin Americans are dejected about democracy, THE ECONOMIST, Nov. 8, 2018, available online at: <https://www.economist.com/the-americas/2018/11/08/latin-americans-are-dejected-about-democracy>
  3. Latinobarometro Poll 2018, available online in Spanish only at: <http://www.latinobarometro.org/latNewsShow.jsp>