COURSE DESCRIPTION

This seminar will evaluate the development and current status of the law related to the privacy of individuals. This seminar will analyze the evolution of protection of personal information under the law and personal autonomy under the law and constitution. The course textbook is PRIVACY: THE LOST RIGHT by JON L. MILLS (Oxford Univ. Press, 2008).

Additionally, the efficacy of constitutional, tort and statutory remedies will be evaluated. Readings will include selected cases and articles.

The seminar will include a written research paper and an oral presentation to the class. We will be using guideline for Advanced Writing Certificate which is: 25 pages (exclusive of footnotes) on Letter-sized paper, 12-point Times New Roman, 1 inch margins (top, bottom & sides), and double-spaced text.

COURSE OBJECTIVES AND STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

This seminar will provide an overview of privacy issues and laws. The students will participate in presentations on selected issues related to privacy. Students will write a paper that meets senior writing requirements on selected privacy topic.

At the conclusion of the course, you will:
1. Understand and label privacy as a constitutional principle.
2. Understand and distinguish remedies available for privacy intrusions.
3. Understand evaluate the differences in privacy laws in the United States and other countries.
4. Understand and analyze the evolution of privacy law in the context of societal and cultural shifts.

Expectations:
It is anticipated that you will spend approximately 2 hours out of class reading and/or preparing for in-class assignments. You will be devoting time to your readings for each class; please be prepared for about 70 pages of reading each week.
Attendance and Participation

Attendance will be taken at each class meeting. Students are allowed 6 absences during the course of the semester. Students are responsible for ensuring that they are not recorded as absent if they come in late. A student who fails to meet the attendance requirement will be dropped from the course and will not be allowed to take the final examination.

Student participation in class is encouraged, and will be considered in assigning a final grade. The degree of student participation will doubtless affect the quality and interest of class discussions. Students are expected to be prepared for each class.

Excused absences are consistent with university policies in the undergraduate catalog (https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/currcnt/regulations/info/attendance.aspx) and require appropriate documentation.

Courtesy

Please turn off your cell phone during class. I also request that you notify me if you know you must leave class early. Please do not play computer games or surf the Internet during class.

Grades

Your grade for this course will depend on how well you perform on your seminar paper. Each member of the class will present his or her paper to the class. Quality of participation counts. If I call on you to contribute to classroom discussion, and you decline, I will come back to you the following day and call on you again to participate.

Course Evaluations

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at https://evaluations.ufl.edu. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/.

Requesting Accommodations

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

University Honesty Policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Honor Code (https://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.
