

Commencement
SPRING 2019

---

Greetings from the Levin College of Law Dean

Congratulations on the culmination of your law school career. Reaching this milestone is an incredible achievement and a testament to your dedication, intellect, and passion for law.

During your time at UF Law, each of you enriched our campus beyond measure. In addition to your achievements that are too many to name, I deeply thank you for your commitment to ensuring that UF Law is a diverse and welcoming community. Diversity – of background, thought, and aspiration – is one of UF Law’s greatest strengths. Each of you, in your own way, has contributed to the cultural fabric of UF Law. This culture is one that we will continue to treasure and build upon for years to come.

Today, you become part of the most powerful law alumni network in the world – the Gator Law Nation. You will continue to build relationships with your classmates, and you will encounter other Gator lawyers in every state and around the globe.

When you walk across the stage today, you become role models for generations of students yet to grace our halls. I am excited to see how you move the world forward. Congratulations!

Laura Ann Rosenbury

University of Florida Levin College of Law Dean

Laura Ann Rosenbury

Laura Rosenbury is Dean and Levin, Mabie & Levin Professor of Law at University of Florida Levin College of Law. She joined UF Law in 2015 and quickly engaged students, faculty, staff, and alumni in building a shared vision to make UF Law a top ten public law school. In under four years, that vision has taken hold at every level. In 2019, UF Law reached its highest-ever ranking in the U.S. News & World Report law school rankings, placing 31st among all law schools, 12th among public law schools, and 1st in the state of Florida. This new ranking marked a 10-point leap in UF Law’s overall ranking in just one year and a 17-point climb since 2016.

Before joining UF Law, Dean Rosenbury was professor of law and vice dean at Washington University School of Law in St. Louis. She has also served as a visiting professor at Harvard Law School, Stanford Law School, and University of Chicago Law School. Before entering academia, Dean Rosenbury was a litigation associate at Davis Polk & Wardwell in New York.

Dean Rosenbury also clerked for judges sitting on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit and the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of New York. Dean Rosenbury graduated cum laude from Harvard Law School, where she served as a primary editor of the Harvard Law Review. She received her A.B. summa cum laude in women’s studies from Harvard-Radcliffe College.

Honorary Degree Recipient

George H. Starke, Jr.

Four years after segregation was declared unconstitutional in Brown vs. Board of Education, Mr. George H. Starke, Jr. enrolled in the University of Florida in September 1958 as the first African-American student admitted to the 105 year-old institution. Mr. Starke was 27 years old at the time and pursuing his dream of a law degree. Ultimately, the physical and emotional pressures of being the only African-American student at UF took their toll, and Mr. Starke withdrew after just three semesters to take a job on Wall Street.

Before making history at UF Law, Mr. Starke earned an A.B. degree in Business Administration from Morehouse College in Atlanta, Georgia. For the next five decades, he worked as a mortgage broker, investment banker, and energy consultant in New York and Washington, D.C.

In 1962, Mr. Starke was the first African-American employed as an Investment Advisory Aide with Moody's Investment Advisory Services in New York City. His business acumen facilitated a successful career in venture capital and corporate and municipal finance including serving as President of both Investment Services Corporation and General Power Company as well as roles at Oppenheimer & Company, The Greyhound Corporation, Wall Street Investment Corporation, and General Trading Corporation.

Mr. Starke was born into a family of pioneers. His father, Dr. George Starke, was the first African-American to gain membership in the Florida Medical Association and opened his own practice in Sanford, Florida. His mother, Mattie Starke, was a beloved high school teacher and librarian. Mr. Starke's cousin, Daphne Duval Williams, also made history as Florida's first female African-American student when she enrolled in UF's College of Education in January 1959.

In 2009, Mr. Starke was given UF's Distinguished Alumnus Award. In 1998 and again in 2018, he was honored by UF Law's Center for the Study of Race and Race Relations in recognition of the important role he played in the history of Florida higher education.

Mr. Starke has served on the UF Alumni Association Board of Directors and the University of Florida Foundation's D.C. Council. He is a lifetime member of the UFAA, a member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, and an honorary member of Florida Blue Key.

Yolanda Cash Jackson

Shareholder, Becker & Poliakoff

Yolanda Cash Jackson from the UF Law Class of 1990 is among the power elite when it comes to lawyer-lobbyists in our State Capitol. Her nontraditional path to becoming a lawyer who influences state policy at the highest levels is a model for new lawyers seeking meaning in their law practice. Ms. Jackson knows political leaders by their first name and changes people's lives through institutional and programmatic initiatives.

Ms. Jackson learned early in her career about the shared benefit of giving back to the community. She learned how community involvement is more than helping your community; it's also about helping yourself. Through her active involvement in organizations as diverse and prestigious as the University of Florida Foundation, the Levin College of Law's Law Center Association Board of Trustees, the Orange Bowl Committee, Delta Sigma Theta National Social Action Committee, Urban League and the National Bar Association, Ms. Jackson has established a reputation for fairness, integrity, dedication and trust. She strives to exemplify those profound qualities every day working on behalf of her clients, many of whom have been with her for more than 10 years. Clients rave about her commitment to client service and praise her effectiveness in Tallahassee.

Ms. Jackson's nontraditional path took her through many areas of law, including family law and litigation, before she found her passion in lobbying and policy. The constant presence in her career, however, has been giving back through non-profit and service organizations. Although her awards are too numerous to mention, Ms. Jackson has been recognized by national organizations such as the National Bar Association for Outstanding Service and by local organizations including the Junior League. Her community commitment knows no boundaries. The Miami Herald named her one of only 50 statewide influencers for 2020 election coverage, and the Daily Business Review named her a "Most Effective Lawyer" in 2018. The Children of Inmates inducted her into the League of Superheroes, the only non-elected, non-government official to be inducted for the third time.

Last but certainly not least, Ms. Jackson has risen to the highest ranks in her own law firm, serving as one of only seven shareholders who form the Becker Management Committee, charged with overseeing all aspects of firm policy, operations and strategic growth. Becker is a multi-practice commercial law firm with attorneys, lobbyists and other professionals in offices throughout Florida and the East Coast.

Ms. Jackson has leveraged her strengths and stayed true to her ideals to create a personally meaningful and civically impactful legal career that adds tremendous value to her clients, her firm and her community.
