

LL.M. Comparative Law – Legal Writing
Prof. Henry T. Wihnyk
Fall 2019

Students in this class must sign up for Prof. Wihnyk's TWEN version of this course, “Legal Writing and Research for LL.M in Comparative Law – Legal Writing Fall 2019” You will find the link to the TWEN course at <http://www.lawschool.westlaw.com> (You must obtain your Westlaw password during orientation)

When you get to the site, click on the TWEN tab and follow the instructions for adding the TWEN course. For assistance call 1(800) – westlaw

I will post materials for this course on the TWEN page throughout the semester. Check the TWEN page often. I expect you to be familiar with everything that I’ve posted.

My primary method of communicating with you will be via email – announcements, schedule changes, assignments, exercises, etc. I expect you to read all emails that I send.

Required Texts

- Materials (will be provided by Prof. Wihnyk)
- The Bluebook 20th ed. (Bluebook)

Assignment for First Class

READ:

TWEN - Syllabus: Course Description, Grading Policies, My Expectations, Class Meetings – Topics and Assignments
Materials – Pages 1 – 4